

TIMBERLUX™

New tone. New feel. New choice.

TIMBERLUX™ DISTRESSED

The Timberlux™ Distressed Collection is an exclusive range of basswood venetians featuring a highly textured wood grain for an authentic antique look. Taking its inspiration from nature, Timberlux™ Distressed is suitable for both contemporary and traditional settings.

Buyer trends show an increasing demand for rustic and less conventional distressed wood finishes. Traditionally seen in the domain of furniture and flooring, distressed woods can now be seen expanding into other markets, offering an artisan quality that is strong in character and charm. Give your home that natural touch with Timberlux™ Distressed from Decora.
